§ 86-7. Removal of dangerous, unseaworthy and disabled vessels.

- A. Any vessel which is abandoned, is a menace to navigation or is unseaworthy or has sunk, is grounded or has otherwise become disabled shall be removed by the owner or person in charge thereof on order of the Harbor Master to such a place as shall be directed by the Harbor Master. If said vessel is not removed within 10 days after order to the owner or ~~last user~~ person in charge thereof to remove it, it may be removed by or at the direction of the Harbor Master or any duly authorized officer or agent thereof at the expense of the owner or person in charge of said vessel, and the expense thereof shall be a lien upon the vessel. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the presence of such a vessel presents an immediate threat to life, limb or property or the owner or ~~last user~~ person in charge thereof is not known, the Harbor Master, in his sole discretion, without prior notice to the owner ~~the last user~~ person in charge thereof, may remove such vessel to such place as he/she deems necessary. The expense thereof shall be a lien upon the vessel.
- B. Any person or entity violating this section by failing to remove a dangerous, unseaworthy or disabled vessel as directed by the Harbor Master shall be guilty of an offense which, upon conviction, is punishable by a fine of not less than $500 and not more than $2,500 or by imprisonment for a period not to exceed six months, or both. Any person or entity found by the Bureau of Administrative Adjudication to have violated this section shall likewise be subject to a monetary penalty of not less than $500 nor more than $2,500.

TOWN OF BABYLON, NEW YORK

LOCAL LAW NO. OF 2026

Be it hereby enacted by the Town Board of the Town of Babylon as follows:

Section 1. Legislative intent.

The Town Board hereby finds that it is necessary to revise Chapter 213, Article XI M.R. Multiple Residence Districts, in order to amend certain bulk zoning regulations to current development standards.

Section 2. Amendments.

Chapter 213, Article XI, specifically §213-110, §213-112, §213-115, §213-117, §213-118, §213-120, §213-122 & §213-128 of the Code of the Town of Babylon shall be amended to read as follows (additions/changes to the Code are indicated by Bolded Underline; deletions are indicated by ~~Strikethrough~~):

§213-110 Building height.

In an M.R. Residence District, no building or structure hereafter erected or altered shall be more than 35 feet or 2 ½ stories above ground level. No basic flat roof shall be permitted.

[SECTION OMITTED]

§213-112 Front yards.

In an M.R. Multiple Residence District, the front setback in any building unit shall not be less than 30 feet. Balconies, porticos or like open areas may extend not more than 10 feet into the front yard.

[SECTIONS OMITTED]

§213-115 Side yards.

In an M.R. Multiple Residence District, there shall be two side yards, one on each side of the plot. The total of the width of both side yards shall not be less than 60 feet, and neither side yard shall be less than 30 feet.

[SECTION OMITTED]

§213-117 Density of dwelling units on lot.

In an M.R. Multiple Residence District, a maximum of 20 dwelling units per acre shall be permitted.

February 11, 2026 Minutes

§213-118 Off-street parking areas.

In an M.R. Multiple Residence District, two paved, off-street parking spaces shall be provided for each dwelling unit, plus ½ a paved, off-street parking space for each bedroom in excess of two bedrooms per unit. Where garages are provided, they may be substituted for such off-street parking areas and shall conform architecturally to the principal buildings. Parking area shall not be permitted between the street and the front building line. Parking spaces may be provided by widening streets and roads on the premises. Said off-street parking area may be adjacent to and part of any unobstructed on-site driveways, provided that the traveled area is not reduced below a width of 24 feet. Said parking area must be curbed, lined off and the direction of travel lane shall be painted over blacktop. Minimum paving specifications shall be designated by the Town of Babylon-Engineering Division.

[SECTION OMITTED]

§213-120 Habitable floor area.

In an M.R. Multiple Residence District, the minimum habitable floor area for each dwelling unit shall not be less than 500 square feet. No portion of any building below the first story ~~or above the second story~~ shall be used for dwelling purposes or in computing habitable floor area.

[SECTION OMITTED]

§213-122 Distance between buildings.

In an M.R. Multiple Residence District, there shall be a minimum of 25 feet between all buildings erected upon the same lot or plot under the provisions of this article.

[SECTIONS OMITTED]

§213-128 Buffer strips.

Wherever an M.R. Residential zoned parcel shall abut upon a residential zoned parcel (~~except for cemeteries~~)-or any parcel used for residential purposes (~~except for another M.R. parcel or cemeteries~~), there shall be a buffer strip 15 feet wide erected, planted and thereafter maintained on the plot pursuant to Planning Board requirements, unless the Planning Board shall require a greater or larger buffer strip. Wherever an M.R. Residential zoned parcel shall abut upon a commercially or industrial zoned or utilized parcel, there shall be a buffer strip 10 feet wide erected, planted and thereafter maintained on the plot pursuant to Planning Board requirements, unless the Planning Board shall require a greater or larger buffer strip.

Section 3. Severability.

If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part of this local law shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder hereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part hereof directly involved in the controversy in which judgment should have been rendered.

Section 4. Effective date.

This local law shall take effect immediately upon filing with the New York Secretary of State.

The resolution was thereupon declared duly adopted.

LOCAL LAW 5 OF 2026
AMENDING THE CODE OF THE TOWN OF BABYLON

Exhibit "A"

ADD as follows:

CHAPTER 195
TAXATION
ARTICLE XIII
EXEMPTION FOR SURVIVING SPOUSES OF POLICE OFFICERS
KILLED IN THE LINE OF DUTY

§ 195-53. Exemption granted.

Pursuant to section 471 of the Real Property Tax Law, as added by Chapter 670 of the Laws of 2025, real property owned by a surviving spouse of a police officer killed in the line of duty, and constituting the primary residence of such surviving spouse, shall be exempt from taxation by the Town of Babylon to the extent of 50% of the assessed valuation thereof.

§ 195-54. Definitions.

As used in this article, the term "police officer" shall have the same meaning as defined in section 1.20 of the Criminal Procedure Law.

§ 195-55. Trusts.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the provisions of this article shall apply to any real property held in trust solely for the benefit of a person or persons who would otherwise be eligible for a real property tax exemption pursuant to this article, were such person or persons the owner or owners of such real property.

§ 195-56. Cooperative apartments.

- A. For the purposes of this article, title to that portion of real property owned by a cooperative apartment corporation in which a tenant-stockholder of such corporation resides and which is represented by their share or shares of stock in such corporation as determined by its or their proportional relationship to the total outstanding stock of the corporation, including that owned by the corporation, shall be deemed to be vested in such tenant-stockholder.
- B. Provided that all other eligibility criteria of this article are met, that proportion of the assessment of such real property owned by a cooperative apartment corporation determined by the relationship of such real property vested in such tenant-stockholder to such real property owned by such cooperative apartment corporation in which such tenant-stockholder resides shall be subject to exemption from taxation pursuant to this article and any exemption so granted shall be credited by the appropriate taxing authority against the assessed valuation of such real property; the reduction in real property taxes realized thereby shall be credited by the cooperative apartment corporation against the amount of such taxes otherwise payable by or chargeable to such tenant-stockholder.
- C. Notwithstanding paragraph B of this section, a tenant-stockholder who resides in a dwelling that is subject to the provisions of either article two, four, five or eleven of the Private Housing Finance Law shall not be eligible for an exemption pursuant to this article.
- D. Notwithstanding paragraph B of this section, real property owned by a cooperative apartment corporation may be exempt from taxation pursuant to this article only if the governing body of the Town of Babylon, after public hearing, adopts a local law, ordinance or resolution providing therefor.

§ 195-57. Application.

Application for exemption shall be made by the owner, or all of the owners, of the property on a form prescribed by the state board. The owner or owners shall file the completed form in the assessor's office on or before the first appropriate taxable status date. The owner or owners of the property shall be required to refile each year. Applicants shall refile on or before the appropriate taxable status date. Any applicant convicted of willfully making any false statement in the application for such exemption shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in the Penal Law. Documentation to establish eligibility under this article shall include the listing of acceptable records made available by the Commissioner in consultation with the Commissioner of the Division of Criminal Justice Services, as posted on the websites of the Division of Criminal Justice Services and the Office of Real Property Tax Services.

RESOLUTION NO. 157 FEBRUARY 11, 2026
ADOPTING LOCAL LAW 6 OF 2026 AMENDING THE CODE OF THE TOWN OF BABYLON

LOCAL LAW 6 OF 2026
AMENDING THE CODE OF THE TOWN OF BABYLON

Exhibit "A"

ADD as follows:

CHAPTER 195
TAXATION
ARTICLE IV
VETERANS TAX EXEMPTION

***

§ 195-16.1. Exemption for active military service members in combat zones.

Pursuant to section 458-d of the Real Property Tax Law, as added by Chapter 677 of the Laws of 2025, qualifying residential real property owned by an active military service member whose military duty station is within New York State and who at any time during the taxable year performed active duty in a combat zone shall be exempt from taxation by the Town of Babylon to the extent of 25% of the assessed value of such property; provided, however, that such exemption shall not exceed $20,000 or the product of $20,000 multiplied by the latest state equalization rate for the assessing unit, or in the case of a special assessing unit, the latest class ratio, whichever is less.

A. Definitions. As used in this section:

- (1) "Active military service member" shall mean an individual serving on active duty.
- (2) "Active duty" shall have the same meaning as such term is used in section 101 of title 10 of the United States Code.
- (3) "Armed forces" shall mean the army, navy, marine corps, air force, space force, coast guard, or army or air national guard of the United States, or New York naval militia.
- (4) "Combat zone" shall mean areas designated by an executive order from the President of the United States in which the United States armed forces are engaging or have engaged in combat.
- (5) "Military duty station" shall mean the permanent location to which an active military service member is assigned for duty as specified on the individual's permanent change of status orders.
- (6) "Qualified owner" means an active military service member whose military duty station places such active military service member's residence within the boundaries of New York State.
- (7) "Qualified residential real property" means property owned by a qualified owner which is used exclusively for residential purposes; provided, however, that in the event that any portion of such property is not used exclusively for residential purposes, but is used for other purposes, such portion shall be subject to taxation and only the remaining portion used exclusively for residential purposes shall be subject to the exemption provided by this section.
- (8) "Latest state equalization rate" means the latest final equalization rate established by the state board pursuant to article twelve of the Real Property Tax Law.
- (9) "Latest class ratio" means the latest final class ratio established by the state board pursuant to title one of article twelve of the Real Property Tax Law for use in a special assessing unit as defined in section eighteen hundred one of the Real Property Tax Law.

B. The exemption provided by this section shall not be applicable to taxes levied for school purposes. If an active military service member is currently receiving an exemption under section 458, 458-a, or 458-b of the Real Property Tax Law in any given taxable year, the active duty service member shall not be eligible to receive the exemption under this section during the same taxable year.

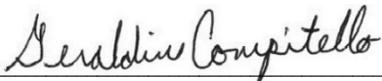

C. Application for exemption shall be made by the owner, or all of the owners, of the property on a form prescribed by the state board. The owner or owners shall file the completed form in the assessor's office on or before the first appropriate taxable status date, along with documentation of active duty in a combat zone, such as a copy of military orders or a certified letter from the commanding officer. The owner or owners of the property shall be required to refile each year on or before the appropriate taxable status date. Any applicant convicted of willfully making any false statement in the application for such exemption shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in the Penal Law.
