

NOTICE UNDER THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

In accordance with the requirements of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (“ADA”), the Town of Babylon does not discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability in its services, programs or activities.

Employment: The Town of Babylon does not discriminate on the basis of disability in its hiring or employment practices and complies with all regulations promulgated by the U.S. Equal Opportunity Commission under Title I of the ADA.

Effective Communication: The Town of Babylon will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities so that they can participate equally in the Town of Babylon’s programs, services, and activities, including qualified sign language interpreters, documents in Braille, and other ways of making information and communications accessible to people who have speech, hearing, or vision impairments.

Modifications to Policies and Procedures: The Town of Babylon will make all reasonable modification to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services and activities. For example, individuals with service animals are welcome in the Town of Babylon offices, even where pets are generally prohibited.

Anyone who requires an auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or a modification of policies or procedures to participate in a program, service, or activity of the Town of Babylon should contact the office of the ADA Coordinator, Traci A. Fonville, Commissioner of Human Services, 200 East Sunrise Highway, Lindenhurst, NY 11757, tfonville@townofbabylonny.gov, 631-464-4336, as soon as possible but not later than 48 hours before the scheduled event.

The Town of Babylon will not place a surcharge on a particular individual with a disability or any group of individuals with disabilities to cover the cost of providing auxiliary aids/services or reasonable modifications of policy, such as retrieving items from locations that are open to the public but are not accessible to persons who use wheelchairs.

However, the ADA does not require the Town of Babylon to take any action that would fundamentally alter the nature of its programs or services, or impose an undue financial or administrative burden.

Complaints: Complaints that a program, service, or activity of the Town of Babylon is not accessible to persons with disabilities should be directed to the ADA Coordinator.
